

An Ordinance concerning chickens and other domestic fowls.

Be it ordained by the Board of Trustees of the Town of Hugo, in the County of Lincoln State of Colorado:

Sec. 1, No person owning or having control of any chickens, ducks, geese, turkeys, pigeons, or other domestic fowls shall permit the same to run or go at large upon any of the streets, alleys, avenues or other public places or to run or go upon the premises of any other person within this town. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars for each offense.

Sec. 2. That an emergency is hereby declared to exist and it is declared that this ordinance is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety.

Sec. 3. That this ordinance immediately upon its passage and approval shall be published in the Lincoln County Democrat and the Range Ledger, newspapers published within the limits of said town, and shall be in full force and effect five days after it is published.

Passed and adopted signed and approved this 30th day of March, A.D. 1921.
